■ James J. Kilcorse, Jr.

The students, staff and parents of DeVilbiss High School have lost one of the true friends of the academic world through the death of Mr. James Kilcarse, DeVilbiss High School Principal of Curriculum and Instruction.

Those who knew Mr. Kilcorse are well aware of his vast knowledge af subject matter and teaching techniques; of his ability to grasp the meaning of new ideas, new materials, and the thrust of new programs in our complex curriculum. Yet, Mr. Kilcarse found time to be in the halls, and classrooms, and took part in student activity life during his years at DeVilbiss.

Mr. Kilcorse had the ability to recognize the needs of our students, staff and community as he attempted to work towards the development of a total curriculum reflecting the desires af all segments of the DeVilbiss neighbarhood communities.

Throughout his fifteen years at De-Vilbiss High School, Mr. Kilcarse was constantly striving to instill in students the ideal of our school, motta, "Finis Origine Pendet", (the end depends upon the beginning).

Student Activities

1. Students show school spirit at the Shoe Bowl game.
2. Rick Adamson and Greg Gillespie weld sets for the nusical. 3. Barb Breno, Jim Manera, and Jann Veller join a passenger in a charus of "Pretty Baby" on the Staten Island Ferry, during the P.O.G. trip to New York.
4. Freshmen cheerleaders Becky McClure, Brenda Brown, and Amy Thielen ride on top of a car in the Hamecoming parade. 5. Mr. K. Marris watches as Kathy Ness, suffering from a sprained ankle she got while in the musical, leaves the stage after being inducted into National Honor Society. 6. Cheryl Minor and Rick Michaels act in "Bye-Bye Birdie". 7. Decorated cars full of excited, cheering students file out of Ottowa Park in the Hamecoming parade.

Students communicated by: cheering until laryngitis set in; printing all the latest "gossip"; re-writing the constitution; acting dancing, and singing in school productions; and recapping all the highlights of the year in the P.O.G. National Honor Society students communicated by means of brainwaves. At Homecoming time, TADS expressed themselves through float themes. They also communicated in student-faculty rap sessions; leading gym classes in "How to keep from falling off the balance beam"; and guiding groups in school projects.

Student Government

Should We Rewrite The Constitution?

Changing the entire constitution brought a lot of discussion at several meetings. Tom Whelan made the "shocking" proposol. Students planned to form a committee to carry out this duty.

Sponsoring activities took up a lot of time. Student Government planned all aspects of Homecoming and supervised the Candy Sale (Student Government officers loved sampling the products of 17 different candy companies!) The Magazine Drive and Club Carnival were other events.

February winter weather proved great for an ice-skating party. Student Government took advantage of the fact and held one for the whole school. Planting trees on the DeVilhiss campus was another and biss campus was another goal.

Toledo Area Student Council had several main projects; the March For The Bridge, Quiz Bowl, and Youth in Government Day, on February 28th. On this day, city council members, judges, and other important city government officials visited area high schools, making speeches and examining school policies.

Homecoming

Dance Sends Tads Sky High

"The location for the dance was stellar, but it would have been better if it wasn't so crowded."

Mr. Morris: "We were tremendously impressed by the way students conducted themselves at the game, before it, and at the dance." "Took a lot from the game not having a crowd in the bleachers for the opposing team."

Only seven floats gathered at Ottawa Park for the pre-game parade to D.H.S. However, many decorated cars joined the parade.

During halftime the crowning of the queen took place. The announcer came on: "The court consists of: Karen Feldstein, Jann Veller, Julie Anderson, and (rolling of drums) Sarah Reiser! The 1973 Homecoming Queen is Barbara Breno!"

After halftime, D.H.S. fans saw the Tigers put forth their greatest effort, stomping Dayton Roosevelt, 35-6.

"Stairway to Heaven," dance theme, proved to be THE HIGH of homecoming. Two hundred ten people (or 105 couples) jammed the Crown Room of the Imperial Lanes Bowling Alley to hear the music of "Shade Tree". At 12:00, some couples turned into pumpkins and went home. Others were night owls, bowling from 1:00 to 3:00 in the morning.

1. Drumming up support for the Tigers is Jon Krueger, o member of the D. H. S. band.
2. Three J.V.s are psyched as they cheer vorsity, toking the places of court attendants.
3. "Right on Tigers!" scream the students as their number 1 team crosses the goal line for another touchdown.
4. Mr. K. Marris, principal, proves he is the team's greatest fan by showing up to judge floats decked out in school colors.
5. Couples jive to the goad vibes of the "Shode Tree" at the dance, "Stoirway to Heaven".
6. Scareboard shows that at the end of the game, Tigers clinched another victory on the road to becoming city champs.
7. Before the parade, Marilyn Herman and Koren J. Michael get the C.O.E. float ready, which wan 1st place for the 2nd consecutive year.
8. Court of: Julie Anderson, Sorch Reiser, Barb Breno, Koren Feldstein, and Jann Veller smile for C. Poul Kenny, photographer.
9. After a wild ramp around the dance floor, Cheryl Minor staps to have her date fix her corsage,
10. Besides being honored with the title of Homecoming Queen, Borb Breno is also active representing DeVilbiss on Lian Store's Teen Board.
11. After receiving instructions from coach Dole Pittman, running back Terry Crosby eats up ground for the Tigers.
12. Tiger Tots, P. J. Rance, Tim Bush, and Jonathon Bush help spork up the crowd at the game.
13. Pay-o-el-sa's second place floot lines up in the parade as it heads for Page Stadium.

Commissioners Now Total 12

Bob Arquette headed the new Charity Commission. A Christmas Cheer Chorale Concert and United Appeal Drive were some of his projects.

One of the zany new ideas thought up by Scott Snow was the "Spirit Rock", a one page article dealing with activities around the school Other ideas were a Senior Scrapbook and toboogagning race through Ottawa Park.

and tobogganing race through Ottawa Park.
Organizations Commissioner, Julie Anderson, stressed the need for club unity. At monthly club presidents meetings, she planned events that all the clubs could participate in, such as; a tobogganing trip, a tug-of-war, and a dance marathon. Dianne Skaff—Social Service, worked closely with Julie. She also kept records of club activities.

As Awards Commissioner, Kathy Begley gave awards during DeVilbiss Week, Candy Sale, and Magazine Drive. Heading these two drives was Melanie Pertcheck—Finance, who reported a profit of eighteen hundred dollars.

Other commissioners were: Mary Whipple—Athletics, Mark Buckley—Assemblies, Tom Whisple—President of Student Council, Dave Rice—Vice President, and Johnnie Lloyd—Clerk of the Board.

Students took a short break from the every day routine of school with a 5 day session of fun and learning called "Horizon Week." They learned subjects not regularly taught such as: bicycling, camping, witchcraft and photography. This program was discussed last year by the Student-Faculty Board. However, this year the Board had the job of carrying it out during the latter part of April.

Another idea the Board worked on was Independent Study.

Four classes of Human Relations were taught this year under the direction of Mr. Paluszok. Before, there was only one such class.

Humon Relations is different from other subjects. To get an "A", you perform 21 volunteer services.

Some students put in time at St. Anthony's Villa, Toledo Hospital, and the Old Folks Home. Another volunteer service added this year was oiding teachers. Mr. Poluszak hoped this would bring about a better relationship between students and faculty.

"Birdie" Soars With Large Cast

Director, Mr. T. Bollin (foreground) goes all out in preparing the show.

"Sod Girls", Kim Wendt and Lindo Weiss, run through their dance routine with Albert (Bob Rosenberg).

Everyone who tried out for "Bye Bye Birdie" was put in the show. Students who didn't land parts were accepted as extras or chorus members, making the largest cast in the history of musicals.

At least a hundred other students were involved planning make-up, printing programs, practicing lighting effects and painting scenery. Props and scenery were included as classroom work far Mrs. Harrison's color desian class and those active in classes at Cotter. After several hours of work, unidentified rogues threw yellow paint an scenery, which had to be painted over.

Two new directors appeared on the scene. Mr. T. Bollin was play director, while Mr. A. Anderson lead the music partion.

The first performance, a matinee, took place an December sixth. Freshmen and saphomores attending ware "We Lave You Conrad" buttons for admission. The cast presented two more shows to full houses on Friday and Saturday nights.

Several problems arase in the play Saturday night: Conrad Birdie's zipper flew open in the middle of "Yau've Gotta Be Sincere" (which the audience responded to with much laughter) and Kathy Ness (Rose) badly sprained her ankle during the Shriner scene. But despite these problems, the show ended with a real send off—a standing ovation!

Kim (Cheryl Minor) brings down the house with ''How Lovely to Be a Womon.''

The excitement of romonce proves too much for Hugo (Dickie London) in the scene, "One Special Boy,"

DeViltries

"Passionella" Combines Old With New Ideas

Again this year, DeViltries experimented with new methods of production under the direction of Bob Rosenberg, Dale Radunz and Mr. T. Bollin. Some firsts in the history of De-Viltries; an orchestra backed the pit band, there were no individual curtain calls, and all acts took place during the first half, with the play taking place during the second.

After a year's absence the Usherettes once again danced down the aisle to cries of "M.O.G." from the stage crew and pit band. All acts followed.

The purpose of the first act was to show rehearsal for the play, "Passionella".

"Passionella" is the story of a chimney sweep who is turned into a movie actress by her fairy godmother. She wins an oscar for playing the role of a chimney sweep. Later she changes back to her original state, along with husband, Flip.

The show ended with the entire cast singing, "Another Openin', Another Show."

1. Chimney Sweep, Passionella (Gwen Waltz), talks with her employer (Scott Snow). 2. DeViltries chorus greets Passionella (Gwen Waltz) at the subway station. 3. Cheryl Minor sings, "Don't Rain On My Parade". 4. Flip (Rick Michaels) prepares to give Passionella an oscar for acting. 5. Director Wailingsford Hamilton (Ray Byers) gives instructions to star Elaine Carlton (Katie Croskery). 6. Swing Sisters; Rine Allison, Phyllis Jones, and Jackie Williams, harmonize to "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy". 7. "It's You!" Croons Stella C. Stardust (Gwen Waltz) as she meets Richard Actir (Rick Michaels). 8. Byron Richards narrates "Passionella". 9. Kathy Ness plays the freaky fairy godmother. 10. Staff Jives With Times

Swimming, sunbathing, boating, water-skiing, and roasting hot dogs was the way the Pot O' Gold staff started off its year. Both old and new staffs spent the day at Bob Bules' cottage. The day ended when half the staff caught jiggers and itched the whole next week.

Editor, Jamie Fine, and Ads Manager, Bob Merritt, attended a week's Publication Seminar at Ohio University during the summer. They lived in dorms, attended classes, and learned new ideas for yearbooks.

Twenty-two students, the largest group ever, gathered at the Toledo Express Airport, bound for New York. Fogged in 8 hours and finally catching a bus to Cleveland for a flight out was only half the excitement they encountered. After arriving in New York, they enjoyed 5 days of sight-seeing, going to plays, and watching the first taping of a new T.V. show at NBC studios. The two day workshop at Columbia University sparked new ideas for yearbooking in the '70's which students brought back and put to use. To update the book, they decided to do away with many of the old rules and set only very loose ones.

The staff held a Christmas party where they exchanged gag gifts and feasted on cookies and ice cream. Along with the fun, long hours were spent working to meet deadlines.

At last in the plane after an eight hour wait, Laurie Thompson, Martha Glaab and Samia Sugheir finish their comic book, "Anatomy". Above: "C'mon dudes, this is our chance for stardam!" exclaim Laurie Johnson, Bob Merritt, and Linda Weiss, as they watch the revolving camera in Times Square.

Advisor Mr. J. Blinn and Editar Laura Jacobs decide on events to cover in he next issue.

Laura Jacobs Heads Prism

Last year two people had the task of heading the Prism staff, being co-editors, but this year it was different. What's the scoop? Laura Jacobs decided to brove it and lead the staff single-handed. Under Mr. J. Blinn's and her guidonce, the staff doubled the output of newspapers compared to last year. Two foctors contributed to this achievement. A new room for the sole use of the Prism improved working conditions. The editor emphasized sharing responsibilities. Obstacles such as an insufficient number of typewriters and no place or proper equipment to develop pictures, hassled staff members, but obviously didn't keep them from obtaining quality.

Prism staff members, half of whom had taken Journalism I, traveled to Bowling Green University for a journalism workshop. They also toured the Blade. Professor Paul Ashdown, a guest speaker from T.U., spoke to them about considering journalism as a profession.

Summer heat fried Varsity Cheerleaders but didn't keep them from practicing. They devoted time weekly to perfecting new cheers and formations. At summer camp in Syracuse, Indiana the girls earned three first place awards, one second, and one third. They also received a "Spirit Stick" to display their ribbons.

A fantastic fall season left the girls in a daze after backing a great Tiger team all the way to the City Championship. Cheerleaders and players really "got into" orange and black knit hats purchased by the Athletic Office, wearing them proudly at the Shoe Bowl.

The Varsity squad decorated school halls, visited players' homes leaving hand-made cards and signs of good-luck, baked cakes for the different teams and gave them carnations before a big game throughout the fall and winter seasons. Besides treating the guys, they took Start Cheerleaders out to lunch at Frisch's.

Cheerleaders, headed by a new advisor, Miss J. Kazmierski, held a clinic for eager Freshmen interested in cheerleading. The Varsity bought new white and black plaid skirts and bright orange bobby socks (instead of traditional white ones) with the profits.

J.V.s really had to dig down during the summer and get in lots of practicing since half the squad never cheered before. For Freshmen Cheerleaders, riding on a decorated car in the Homecoming parade really blew their minds!

Thirteen Girls Make The Wrestling Scene

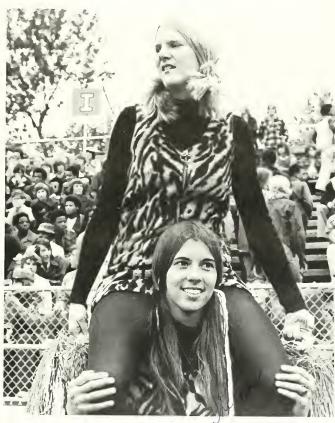

Besides the five Tigerettes danning cheerleading outfits and cheering for the matmen, eight more girls supported them. New this year were the Mat Maids. Anyone interested in wrestling cauld became one. They got tagether and made signs, kept scare and callected tickets at home matches, and gave wrestlers oranges.

Tigerettes spent time making gaadie bags, signs, and cards for the wrestling team and gave each wrestler Gatarade after his efforts on the mat. These girls performed an acrobatic routine each quarter at football games and other stunts on the side lines. Before the Shoe Bawl game, the Tigerettes each made a card far every player and decorated his house, chalking wishes of good-luck.

Pom-Pom Girl try-outs took place early in the fall. Those chosen made up soul dances and rautines to be performed at basketball games. During half-times, they got it together on the gym floor, entertaining the basketball fans. Honor Societies

D. H. S. Upholds High Standards

Although the Notional Honor Society's constitution notionally has been changed so that schools may decide their own standards for eligibility, D. H. S. has not changed. Students still must have a 3 point average and be in the upper 15% of their class. For the first time, the society had a club charter.

Tigers Trip Titans In Shoe Bowl

In Hard-fought Defensive Struggle

Recording the first shut out in the history of the Shoe Bowl, the Tigers with the advantage of a surprise play, and a strang defense, held St. Johns scoreless in a City Championship win.

Struggling in a defensive contest, the Tigers led by Jerry Blanton, set the Titan team on edge. Pressure built up by Farley Bell and Charles McCreary forced two interceptions in the game from St. John's quarterback, Dan Anderson.

The gome's only score came early in the second period, when Terry Crosby took a pitch out from quarterback, Jan Rizzo. Assisted with a key block by tackle, Jack McWilliam, he slipped around the left flank for a 60 yard touchdown.

For the first time in the history of DeVilbiss, the Tigers won the Shoe Bowl. And as Principal Kenneth Morris stated, "When all is said and done, Tigers are No. 1!"

Tigers' Determination Seals Success

Determined Bob Phillips leads Jerry Blanton in triple aption play.

Tying Sandusky sparked the determination of the gridders. Even Central, one of the few teams that stopped our offense on the ground, fell before that determination.

Scott's defeat brought gloom, matching the gloomy day, and fear that our chances for winning the city championship were gone. The following week, though, the team chalked up a decisive homecoming victory over Dayton Roosevelt. With each victory, the pressure built up. Start, then Woodward fell before the Big Orange Machine. Finally—the Shoe Bowl!

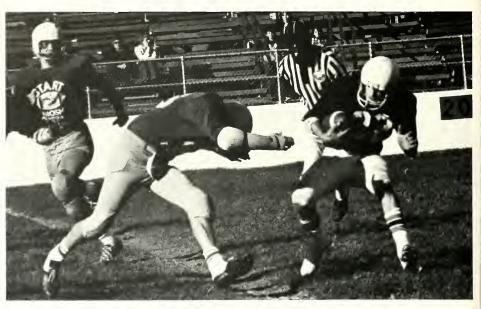

What was different about this year? Coach Dale Pittman said that he and his assistants had done away with "pep talks." He alsa said, "We did not work any harder than in the past, we just emphasized different things." On the last practice before a game, players wore complete gear. They abolished the tradition of wearing ties on the day of a game, letting each player wear what he wanted. Coach Pittman gave credit to the team members themselves, stating that the players not only got along with each other on the field, and in the locker room, but also out of school.

Junior Varsity Falls Short

Though the Freshman Football Team earned only one victory for their record, very much interest was shown, and remained throughout the season. Starting practices in August, along with the Junior Varsity and Varsity teams, the kittens worked long hours to unite their team. Under the instruction of Coach Dave Roberts, players copied the varsity, running the triple option play. "The outlook for next year is good, because the players worked together as a team," stated Coach Roberts.

From lack of interest, the Junior Varsity Football Team, many times, had players come down from the varsity squad. Playing a J.V. game on Thursday, and dressing Varsity on Friday was not an unusual scene for many team members. Teamwork was stressed. An old tradition came back, and games were held in the Page Stadium, instead of the practice field. Outstanding players included George West, Aaron Hale, John Stewart, and Lynn Dillard.

Stu Davis broads over the team's disappointing finish in the district meet at Ottowa. Bewildering the apposite sex, Barb Miller ing finish in the district meet at Ottowa.

This was the cry which the 1973 cross country team rallied around. They had a lemon of a season in 1972, finishing fourth in the city. The team was down on itself. But instead of crying over spilled milk, the runners decided to "make lemonade."

They decided to go to Beover Island in Lake Michigan to train and relax for the upcoming season. During the week there the team cooked its own meals, went swimming in Lake Michigan, ran twelve to twenty miles a day, and slept under the stars.

When they returned, they were ready to take on their rivals: St. Johns and Bowsher. The Rebels were favored to win the city championship. Coach Tapola said, "If you come within six points of beating Bowsher, you will have a tremendous chance to take that city championship trophy home with you!"

Senior co-captains: Alan Wisebaker, Bruce Tapola, and Jymb Johnson provided leadership while Junior Doug Eble added valuable points to the team effort. Barb Miller became the first female runner in D.H.S. history. The younger runners, Sophomores Stu Davis, Mark Loman, and Rick Thielen developed as the season progressed just as Coach Tapola had haped.

As the city meet rolled around, the team prepared itself both mentally and physically. The team received new black and yellow uniforms which were ordered for last season's track team. They arrived six months late, yet still added to their enthusiasm. Finally, D-Day arrived for the Tigers. DeVilbiss finished with three runners in the top six as they trounced the city league.

The season ended on a somewhat "sour" note with the team finishing a disheartening fourth place in the district. Only one member, Bruce Tapola, went on to the state championships.

Cross Country Team Plays Guns?

Did you ever wonder what happened when the cross country team went into the woods after a meet? The truth is the team played army! They began playing army at Beaver Island in their spare time and continued after they returned to Toledo. Pretending their sticks were guns, they would shoot each other and play dead. The rules were that if you were shot, you had to count to thirty before you could get up. The person who finished off everyone was declared the victor.

As the UCLA Bruins dominated collegiate basketball, the DHS chess team dominated Toledo chess. The team racked up a 26-0 record over two years. This year they won the city championship hands down. Every team member finished the city playoffs undefeated.

Individual accomplishments abounded. Senior Phil Stern finished his second unbeaten season. Mike Gold lost his first match in 33 games, but retaliated by winning the John Beech Memorial Trophy, a tournament for the best city high school chess player. Bernie Scharfman and Tom Whelan both set new DHS records by winning matches in six moves. The previous record of ten moves was held by Phil Stern.

The chess team sponsored a pie throwing contest to earn money for their trip to the state championships. The cheering mob of students watched, while the administrators were targets for luscious cream pies. The team pocketed $65. During the state finals the team finished third, losing to two local Columbus Teams.

Sectional Tournament

Friendship Inspires Teamwork

Growing friendship in the J.V. team was the key for their improved playing. The year also started with a new coach. Coach W. Oliver took over the position of J.V. Basketball coach with no previous experience in B.B. coaching.

The reserves showed all of what they were striving for in the game against Start, held at the T. U. Fieldhouse. They won this game in overtime when Larry Feldstein sank a foul shout with one second remaining.

A change from set plays to the shuffle offense demanded discipline and team work from each individual. It also gave the players experience for varsity play.

The team ended its season on a very successful note. The J.V. players feel that they have a full summer of hard work ahead of them.

For the first time in their history, the Freshman Basketball Team won more games than they lost. The success of the season is portrayed by this alone.

Practicing at 8:15 every morning, the team members remained dedicated. More shooting, and less running was stressed. Under the leadership of Coach John Okenka, the Tigers' goal was seven wins.

Wrestling

Grapplers Log Tough Schedule

"You're either a hammer or a nail" was one of the many signs inside the wrestling room to enthuse the wrestlers. The varsity schedule was as hard as nails as they struggled for a .500 season. The lawer weight classes were much more inexperienced than the heavier classes, which caused them some difficulties.

A new coach entered the scene this year, Mr. Tom Talbot. The team had much respect for him as the season progressed. Coach Talbot stressed drilling on techniques and takedown wrestling. Having been chosen Coach of the Year in 1971 for the Huron wrestling team and having coached at the Jr. Olympics, Coach Talbot arrived with much experience.

Outstanding performances marked the year. Bruce Germain finished in third place in the Sectionals and second in the District. Girls' Basketball Emphasizes Teamwork

For the first time in the history of the Girls' Varsity Bosketball Team, the season ended on a successful note. The good fortune was due to the fact that the team tallied up four wins.

A change in the strategy of practices stressed teamwork and perfection. The girls used a zone defense, much like that of the boys' team. A highlight of the season was the close game against Woodward which the Tigers won. Outstanding performances were given by Rhonda Peterson, who holds the scoring record of 146 points, and also team members, Kim Grier, Deannie Buchanan, Barb Miller, Val Shinners, and Nancy Collins.

Girls Bowl In City-wide Meet

The girls' team had a total of twenty on the team. They bowled every week for ten weeks at Westland Lanes. The last week of the season, a tournament took place at Southwyck Lanes for the high schools in the city league. The new coach for the team was Miss Joan Clark

The boys only had fifteen members participating on the team. Every Saturday they bowled against other city teams at Imperial Lanes. The highest average was Jack Smith's 176. The bowlers split up into three teams with five bowlers on a side. Mr. John Tischinae coached, the team again this year.

Queen Crowned At Half-time

Afro-American Week began with the crowning of Queen Cheryl Minor and her court during half-time of the St. Francis basketball game. Assemblies on Wednesday and Thursday of the following week concentrated on the history of Black Americans.

A movie starring Bill Cosby and an excellent performance from the Scott Jazz Band were the highlights of the assembly on Wednesday.

Thursday's assembly began with the presentation of the Queen and Court and a reading of the Queen's essay. A fashion show of African clothes, made by the students themselves, along with modern dances and singing from the Gospel Tria and Gospel Chair ended the program.

End of School Day Brings Fun

What did kids do after the school day was over?

Sundays were spent playing football at Goddard field or playing at Ottawa Park

Young Life meetings on Monday nights gave some a better insight to friendship and Jesus Christ.

Tuesday night was family night for eight DeVilbiss students who worked at Ponderosa.

Studying for those big tests on Friday took up most of the time on Wednesday and Thursday.

Friday and Saturday night, kids chased off to Michigan, then sprinted bock to a D.H.S. basketball game. After the game, it was your choice of hitting McDonald's, Shakey's or Harry's. Imperial Lanes was a popular place to bowl, shoot pool and "hang out" especially after the City Championship football game!

Academics

Art, Orchestra, Choir, and Band, combined into a fine arts department, helped communication among teachers. Regional Cultural Studies, Social Studies I, IAC Chemistry, Home Ec. V and several mini art courses advantage types of programs and provided a wider specify of electives to students. The languar school day, from 8 15 to 3:10, allowed students to take as many as seven subjects at to do their homework in study halfs. Among period toolchine in the library was a greet reportation.

Focus on Individual Talents

After taking Art Fundamentals, students are now able to take various semester courses. According to their interests, they can choose life drawing and advanced drawing, commercial application and lettering, or ceramics and painting.

Color Design and Composition was an added, full year class. Students learned what color was about and how to use it better. This class did the scenery for "Bye, Bye Birdie."

Of the twenty-five paintings on exhibit at the First National Bank Show in November, six were chosen from Tads. They were Karen Born, Barb Breno, Julie Cobak, Brenda Nor-man, Joyce Pietras, and Neil Sperling. Karen received a First in the Oils Category and $40; Joyce was given Honorable Mention. At the Owens Illinois Show, Ruth Lynch received First Purchase Award and $150, Denise Declera was awarded Second Purchase Award and $75.

Band Hosts City Wide Contest

Eight area bands displayed their talents at the Marching Band Festival held in the DeVilbiss stadium, October 10th. The Bowling Green State University Band came also. Candy Johnson, Band director at Spencer Sharples, was feature soloist with them.

Concentration on concert, marching, and classical type compositions proved productive for this year's members. An annual Spring concert was held in the auditorium in May to show their improvement. They also performed at the opening Mud Hens' game in April.

Mike Walsh and Dennis Lazenby were members of the All Ohio Band. They, along with John Pope, attended the Solo and Ensemble Contest at BGSU in February.

Hove You Ever Found Love?

If ever a person asked If I have found love I will tell him Yes I have.

If ever a person asked Where I have found love I will say to him In the people I have hurt.

If ever a person asked Why have the ones you have hurt loved you I would say to him They can understand, What I cannot understand about myself.

Silly Syntax

In the beginning, God created the present and the future. And God said, "Let there be linking verbs"; and there were linking verbs. And ofter much ado, God said, "Let there be modifiers in our infinitive." Sa God created modifiers in his own infinitive. And God named the modifiers Adverb and Expletive.

Adverb and Expletive lived in the Garden of Exclamation. God told Adverb and Expletive that they could eat the fruit of any sentence tree in the garden except that of the structure tree.

In the structure tree lived a mighty semicolon, who was full of the dash. The semicolon tricked Expletive into eating the forbidden fruit. Expletive in turn coaxed Adverb into eating the fruit.

God did not abbreviate his progressive actions against Adverb and Expletive. He restricted them from the garden.

As time went on, Expletive had two sonnets, whom she named Comma and Adjective. Comma, like the semicolon, was also full of the dash. One day he took his brother Adjective into the field and erased him.

Here my story ends, leaving you a dangling modifier.

-Kim Wendt

Triangles

Triangles are never ending. If you cut one in half, you get two triangles. Strange for if you cut an opinion in half, you get just half an opinion, proving that an opinion would be better with three sides—our side, and the objective side.

Poor little ant Always working and doing More than your share.

Struggling over a mountain, Bearing more weight than your Own, yet striving all the same.

You stumble countless times, But you get up and keep going On, Pushing forward eternally.

Making your small sandhill One grain at a time, always Doing good, and never bad.

As I watch you You don't know how Lucky you are, little ant.

For if you were A person, you would never Make it in this world.

A Psalm

My car is my shepherd; I shall not walk.

It maketh me get stuck in white Pastures of snow.

It leadeth me beside gas stations Where I filleth her up;

It draineth my pocket.

It leadeth me along the slow paths Of the crowded highways.

Yea, though I ride through the valley Of pedestrians, I will fear no exercise.

My car is with me;

Its reclining bucket seats and 4-speed, They comfort me;

Thou annointeth my "head" with oil; My glove compartment runneth over with car-wash coupons;

Surely poverty and pollution shall follow me all my life,

And I shall dwell in the house of "repair"—Forever.

-Mike Orr

No Ordinary Noun

Once upon a time there was a small family which resided under the name of the "Noun" family. The head of the family was Daddy Noun. Daddy Noun had played football during his days and had high hopes of becoming a "Pro-noun," but his energy became restrictive, putting an end to his dreams of a future perfect.

Daddy Noun had a fine son, for whom he had high hopes also. His son would be different, not just a common noun. The present would have been perfect except for one weak reference—his son wanted to be a painter, this ambition branding him as an abstract noun.

Daddy Noun's heart was broken into a thousand fraaments, but he finally accepted the fact that his son was going to be independent. Anyway, there is no future in subjunctive mood.

—Pam Schinke

Somewhere within,
The windows of my mind—
I can see you,
Standing here before me,
And when I reach out to touch you—
The window closes and you've vanished from me, You've left me standing out here in the cold-once more.

New English Program

ENGLISH

Freshman English identified the strengths and weaknesses of individuals. Teachers used results of eighth grade metropolitan scores and of tests taken during the first few days of school to determine what area the student needed help in. These areas included reading, writing, speech and literature. After the student achieved progress in his special assigned area, he could move to another area at irregular time periods.

Two Courses Vary History Program

SOCIAL

Social Studies I and Regional Cultural Studies alternated the Social Studies program by replacing Orientation and World History. Social Studies I introduced freshmen to economics, psychology, political science and other ospects of the world. Regional Cultural Studies emphasized the cultural developments of different regions (excluding those developments the Chinese-Russian Center concentrates on). Mr. D. Dreher and Miss L. Margy used the inquiry method to teach these courses.

Human Relations' students signed controcts as the main basis for their grade. These controcts had a list of 25-30 services a student could perform in a quorter. Included in the list was volunteer work for orphans or people in the school. Mr. M. Paluzak explained, "Time is of the essence, and if people are willing to donate a lot of their time for someone else, we feel it is a step forward".

Black Drama Room Proves Flexible

Why black? That's the question many people asked when they saw the drama room walls pointed black. The color black allowed students to achieve special lighting effects and to be able to control the audience's attention during productions. The former wooden chairs were torn out, which gave students more room to rehearse. The new carpeting not only added comfort, but also kept the noise down.

Oral Communications, the new name given to Speech, prevented students from signing up to improve enunciation. Students performed persuasive, demonstrative, informative, and entertaining speeches and commercials. They could study their performances on videotape to see how to improve.

Electronics Class Runs T.V. Equipment

OCATIONAL

Commercial television equipment, donated by Channels 11 and 13, was in the care of electronic students. These students were in a new advanced program. Mr. Ludlum explained, "We have completed a special area of the room for a two hour advanced course in construction and repair. Students apply radio and circuit theory in repairing equipment brought in by students."

Freshmen and sophomores could take horticulture at DeVilbiss. Advanced students went to the Zoo and Horticulture Center for classes.

In Machine Shop, students performed services for other school activities where there was a need for projects to be built of metal. One of these projects was cutting metal for the set for "Bye-Bye Birdie".

Drafting classes included a two period advanced class in architectural drawing. Students designed, drew and built models to scole of homes. Many students out of this class got jobs drawing.

"Some students think home ec, is just cooking and sewing, but they find out it's more than that," commented Mrs. M. Kurt. Teachers assigned students home projects which required 45-50 hours of work. They visited the students' homes to check the projects.

Practice in sliding? What could be a better way to learn to control a car in a skid. And that's exactly what they did one icy day. They found an empty parking lot and there they learned how to hold on to the wheel when the car beains to skid.

Students had classroom for three days and study hall for two. Learning how an engine runs, planning a trip, and map reading were all projects done by the students. In addition to the usual movies and slides, classes viewed the "Shell Better Driving Test" Filmstrip. This filmstrip was unique in that it asked various questions a driver should know.

The simulator trailer behind the school brought a cool relief to summer school learners. Air-conditioning and simulating actual driving conditions were two of its best assets. It was not used during the school year because of lack of time and the greater need for actual driving experience.

For the first time ever the administrators prepared a cookout for the teachers on their opening day. Delicious hotdogs and tossed salads with all kinds of "fixins" delighted everyone. Administrators also served a Christmas breakfast.

During the course of the year, faculty and administrators discussed many subjects before arriving at a common viewpoint: 1. scheduling; 2. curriculum; 3. budgets for departments. Several meetings also took place for discussions on "Horizon Week." Since the school will be painted in the early fall, teachers chose colors for their classrooms.

The Athletic Department provided administrators and faculty members with four free tickets for the various sporting events. The result was that many faculty members and their families attended.

A student body of 1625, 100 fewer than last year, meant a decrease in faculty. One free classraom, across from the boys' gym, provided a haspitality center for the Boosters' Club, a storage area for equipment, and a practice room as well as a penalty hall.

Seniors showed responsibility by heading committees, organizations, and groups with strong leadership and enthusiasm; showed spirit by cleaning up the cafeteria; showed athletic abilities by winning the shae bowl, cross country, chess, etc.; showed honors by having the only Toledo city school to have three national Merit Scholarship tinalists wireners; showed feelings and emutions by period choked up at graduation.

Talking, talking, and more talking proved to be the reason senior courts were finally opened this year. Doug Ligibel and his fellow senior class officers discussed the situation with the administration intelligently instead of childishly. Together they tried to work out a "deal" which would enable us to gain back the court privileges. Mr. K. Morris felt that the senior courts were an honor earned by mature action and attitudes not just a privilege passed on to all those becoming seniors. The seniors of '73 did not prove their willingness to work with the administration and never got the courts opened last year. We showed this year we wanted to work with the administration by helping clean up the cafeteria after the lunch hours and hopefully set-ting an example for the underclasses. We worked with the administration instead of against them and in the early fall the senior courts were unlocked. Once the courts were opened, seniors took advantage of them by cutting across from front to back hall, lounging in the sun and talking with friends.

Dinner Dance

ast Year's

Out of the ordinary dishes, a fantastic band and a romantic setting helped the junior class dinner dance to be a success. The Sheraton Westgote was the scene of the 1973 dinner dance, Days of Wine And Roses, held on June 1st. Bids were $14.00 a couple, but seemed to be well worth it. Everyone could not get over the extensive array of fine foods on the smorgasbord table. Roast sirloin, shrimp newburg and German potato salad seemed to be the delights that most people went back for. After everyone ate his fill, dancing to the music of Atlantic was a great way to burn off the extra calories.

Seniors Voice Opinions

Seniors express their feelings about their last year at D.H.S. Jan Rizzo: I think it was a good year, especially in athletic and scholastic achievements. A better understanding of people was brought about by the Shoe Bowl victory. Academically I feel my senior year was too easy. Winning the Shoe Bowl was the pinnacle of my four years at DeVilbiss. Julie Nordhoff: Each year I feel more comfortable. Even though I am enjoying my senior year, I do not feel I am being prepared for college. Brian Ripple: My senior year was basically what I expected it to be. I have gotten to know more people and have become more involved in social activities. I've really had to put out in my subjects, but I know I won't regret it in the future. Bob Arquette: My four years at DeVilbiss have been pretty good. I feel as a senior I have had more opportunity to do whatever I set my mind to. Tom Weissbrod: The attitude of the whole school this year has not been to sit back and watch or to leave things as they were, but to set out and do, to attack problems and situations. Linda Fadden: My senior year has definitely been my best, I feel that everyone has opened up. Kids that I have grown up with through high school have all become unified.

Stephanie Knowlton: I think by the time we are seniors we have matured enough to start accepting people for what they are, not for what they stand for. Since we're finding something good in everyone, we're becoming better people. Mary Whipple: I feel most of my classes this year were a waste of time. Tom Meyers: The school as a whole was more unified this year; everybody enjoys winning, and we did. Bruce Tapola: Even though many people consider the Shoe Bowl victory the most memorable event of their senior year, I myself feel that the cross country city championship was by far my most memorable. To be the underdogs is one thing, but annihilating the favored team, Bowsher, was indescribable fun. The extracurricular activities, the faculty's attitudes, and the rapidly dissolving racial problems all helped make my senior year my best. Bob Merritt: You itch the entire year to get out, but when the last month rolls around, you wish it would never end. Kathy Begley: Happy memories like the Shoe Bowl, Homecoming and Varsity Drag helped to make my senior year something to treasure. It's really been a great feeling to be a part of the class of '74. I wouldn't have given up my four years at DeVilbiss for anything.

Seniors Show High Spirits

To the kids at St. Anthony's it seemed as if the Great Pumpkin had arrived. Senior guys donated 100 pumpkins to them for halloween. Couples boogied back to the days of be-bop and sha-na-na when the senior class sponsored varsity drag, held on March 15. Greased-back hair guys and bobby-socked girls jitterbugged to the sounds of the past from 8:00-10:00.

The "Time Capsule" was a new idea this year. Seniors put mementos of their high school years into a large can which was sealed and buried in the senior court. As seniors began to turn eighteen many found Mr. Entertoiner, Harry's, the Bell, and the Grotto great places to go after the games. A perfect ending for our four years at DeVilbiss was to have such winning teams in athletics.

Olander Park proved a romantic setting which was much more casual than the usual Masonic Auditorium. A large brick fireplace served as the center of interest. Ook beams and stone walls added to the cozy feeling. The chilly weather, however, prevented much use of the tables set up outside, lighted by flaring torches. Bowling ofterwards at Imperial Lanes and then off to breokfost made Prom a night to remember.

With the frosh and sophs still trying to find their way around school and the poor, wornout seniors overworked, it will hove to be you who will carry the torch of spirit to football, bosketball games, etc..." This message by Scott Snow greeted '75ers on the first day. Throughout the year their voices were heard in all events and with 380, the noise was quite a roar.

Good Times Roll

What a gas! Although there was a lack of it, Juniors found out how handy a license can be. Registered regular D.H.S. drivers numbered 48. The class grooved on weekends at parties, concerts and movies. Pranks became easier with getaway cars. Blaring horns from mobiles driven by '75ers added more excitement to caravans. Parents' permission concerning the cars sometimes seemed to cause more hassle than gas availability. Despite an energy crisis Juniors agree that sit-athome weekends were gone and fun was where you found it.

Mrs. S. Bowers and Mr. R. Baggs, closs advisors, at the request of Beta, a national scholastic organization, conducted a survey among Juniors. In January, sixty students answered questions concerning what they plan for the future. The class indicated what colleges and types of work they preferred.

A greater percentage of juniors took the P.S.A.T. on October 23. Students take these to get an idea of what college boards are like.

Classes juniors preferred this year were A.M. English, which included trips to the museum twice a month, and fine arts courses. When asking '75ers whot their biggest accomplishment was, most smiled and said, "passing Chemistry."

Juniors Jobs are 'a Must'

College and independence quickly were approaching and inflation was working against everyone. Juniors concentrated on adding money to bank accounts with parttime jobs. Jobs ranged from food services to machine mechanics. Most earned the minimum wage of $1.60 an hour. Despite the red tape, 16 year olds had to get a work permit.

Activities for the sophomore class began with the election of officers in the second month of school. Officers and class members got right to work and involved themselves in school activities. Under Kathy Shafer's guiding hand many helped build a homecoming float which won a prize of $2.50 to add to their treasury. New ideas in fund raising brought successful results. Sucker sales were a booming business. In one day busy salesmen sold as many as 600 sweet and sour pops for a dime each. Sophomores sold T-shirts in football jersey style with '76 written on them. They also sold lined jackets bearing the DHS insignia. Signs posted in the halls advertised even extra-large sizes for fatties, and smalls for slim-jims.

Class officers: Julie Abel, vice president; Kathy Shafer, president; Mary Mossing, representative-at-large; Mally Reiser, secretary; and Laurine Spetz, treasurer, clawn around after their first meeting.

Finding themselves a little older and a little wiser than they were last year, this year's upper-underclassmen tested their new freedoms and privileges with enthusiasm. The students tried to organize the class and really got involved with the school in every way that they could. Some students found themselves looking down on the freshmen, forgetting last year when they too were looking for the elevators and the fourth floor swimming pool. As sophomores they were above all that now. Officers organized fund-raising activities and before long the treasury held more than $150 to be used to finance a Cedar Point trip in the spring and for their senior and junior activities.

Fun Found By 79ers

Ambitious sophomores excelled in a variety of things this year. Moments of pride were when sophomores won prizes during the candy sale, learned to drive, had lead parts in the musical and in Deviltries, collected $25 for the Kilcourse Memorial Fund, made the most noise at the pep assemblies, but the best of all they knew their way around. Combining fun and work was a successful combination for the class of '76.

Two Down Two To Go

Well they made it, halfway through high school. The class of '76 found themselves on the way to a very profitable four years at DeVilbiss. Their success was primarily due to the unbeatable work force of the class afficers and the class advisors Mr. Roy Martin and Mrs. Nedra Outram. The advisors took an active interest in all sophomore class plans and served an important service in the communication between the school administration and the students. The goal for the class will make the next two years just as good or better than the first two years.

Students Awaken

Learning a new way of life! Coming into high school from a place that's so different! What do many freshmen say? "The teachers are people, they're fun to be with and you can joke around with them." Students enjoyed the freedom of high school. "In grade school, you were always watched so closely, and constantly being yelled at and treated like a first grader. Here at DeVilbiss, you're treated more grown up. I like the freedom that they give you in the halls." Another student reacted towards his fellow students. "I love meeting new people."

Besides social differences, there are also academic differences. When a frosh was asked about his classes, he replied, "I think my freshman year is a lot easier, but I know I'm learning more."

Sports, Mogazine Drive, Plays! Freshmen participated in many school activities.

Playing sports is what Ronny Jones enjoyed. Ronny quoted his opinion of DeVilbiss sports. "I got a lot out of playing football, the running was hard though."

How about the mogazine drive? Ruthann Monders found most of her success with selling subscriptions with people she knew. She sold one to her dentist, and five magazine subscriptions to her family.

The Play in December gave freshmen opportunity to be a part of the school. Kathy Musker was ready to perform opening night. "I wos so excited to get out on stage, I could hardly wait to entertain!" What could you say about your freshman year in high school? The class of '77 had a lot to say about their first year at DeVilbiss. They had become a class with interest and concern for the school which held the motto, 'Orange and Black, the Tigers are back."

"It was some year! I really grew to love DeVilbiss." "It was something new, it introduced you to a new way of life." "I met a lot of nice people, our class had lots of nice people in it." "It was good how everyone seems to get along at De-

Fly Me To The Berlin Wall?

Wow! Twenty German students traveling to both East and West Germany! Spring break found them driving on the Autobohn and viewing the Berlin Wall. A brief trip into East Berlin added intrigue to the excursion.

Polkas and German homecooking livened up the second annual German Festival. Because of a ruling against having food in the classrooms, a section of the cafeteria suddenly became a German restaurant—dance floor included. Using money from last year's festival and the $460.00 made this year, the cost of the trip to Germany decreased considerably per student.

Gifts of food helped to make a needy family's Christmas a little merrier.

Selling Valentine's Day carnations helped the underclass earn money for Senior Banquet.

Seven o'clock on a Safurday rolled around mighty fast for the second semester voting meeting. After kidnapping the new members, everyone ate breakfast at Uncle John's Pancake House.

I-Da-Ka and Pay-a-el-sa combined efforts in order to have the best Spring formal possible. With Olander Park as the site, couples danced to the light of candles and a log fire.

Girl's Basketball Jeam Receives Recognition

Monthly newsletters have kept members aware of what to plan ahead for. The result has been a better than average attendance for club activities.

Baking cakes, making spirit signs, and attending the girl's basketball games let our team know that someone took an interest in them.

"The Sting", attracted droves of people to the Showcase Cinemas—including Jr. Sorelles. The agreement of those who attended the movie boiled down to one sigh: Robert Redford is a real hunk!

Lunch at McDonald's provided an escape for pent up nervous energy after the crammina and worry of exams. With food still on their minds, the airls ate breakfast at Uncle John's Pancake House after their second semester votina meeting.

Selling St. Patrick's Day carnotions earned the club enough money to pay for their page in the club section of the yearbook.

Daing the unusual seemed to be Sorelles' theme. Sports and groups not usually in the limelight received special attention. Bulletin boards decorated for the chess and soccer teams lined the back hall. Attention also focoused on the football team. A sign with a rhyme using all the team members names encircled all the halls on the first floor.

Christmas vacation provided the perfect opportunity for a wild slumber party. A few of the girls also attended the Youth Orchestra Concert.

Spring efforts centered mainly on an open dance held at the Close Park Shelterhouse. An unnamed band provided solid walls of sound.

Biggest Club Keeps Girls Busy

Taking kool-aid for the cross country team to every meet started the year off at a good pace. A hayride at Douglas Meadows in the fall proved to be cold but fun. In November, after the new members got in, a slumber party and formal inductions followed. Christmastime was a busy one for Pay members. As a money-making project they sold Christmas carnations. They also sponsored a Christmas Dance which was held at Laurel Hill Country Club and was open to the school. Alumni Tea and a Christmas caroling party were also over winter vacation. Their Christmas window won 2nd place. Pay-a-el-sa is the biggest club at DeVilbiss and 15 new freshmen increased the already large membership. A private dance open only to Pay and Idaka members in March, another slumber party, and a Senior Banquet ended the year successfully.

At formal inductions new members take their oaths before afficers Sarah Reiser, Missy Knight, and Heidi Vandivart.

Peries Jakes Orphans to DHS Basketball Game

Linda Bassa marks her ballat sheet but Denise Whitaker can't make up her mind at the Peries voting meeting.

Peries couldn't wait for school to open to begin their services. During the summer they washed and painted 80 classroam waste baskets arange and black. Selling Thanksgiving Day carnations, sponsoring popcorn ball and candy apple sales, and having a fruit pie sale for the teachers provided plenty of money for the year's expenses. A big-little sis Christmas Party was a fun ending for '73. The new year began by taking 8 orphans from St. Anthony's Villa to a DeVilbiss basketball game and having a pizza party afterward in a church basement. As a literary society Peries attended a few plays and movies. After surprising the new members on a Sunday morning they had doughnuts and juice at the president's house to get to know them a little better.

Juniors Lead Club Events

Since the club was without any seniors to lead them, the juniors had to carry the load. Early in the fall, OA sold Homecoming mums. They gave tray favors to the teachers throughout the year on holidays. Before a February meeting the girls went to Shakeys Pizza Parlor for dinner. They held a slumber party for the new members in March and had an Alumni Tea in April for all the members from previous years to meet the present members. A biglittle sis picnic in the spring brought everyone out for a good time.

COE won 1st prize for their Homecoming float for the second year in a row. They attended a few business conferences, a leadership conference in Lima and an elections conference in Bowling Green. As fund-raisers they had bakesales and had a Christmas Sale in which they sold Christmas kits. These netted around $500. Also at Christmas time they went out to breakfast at Uncle John's Pancake House and had a gift exchange. They decided to go out to breakfast whenever they had extra money in the treasury. In the spring they had an employer-employee banquet.

DECA Develops Future Leaders

This has been the most successful year for DeVilbiss DECA by far, according to advisor Mr. Russell Brock. Before he came to DHS last year there had never been a winner at state competition. Sue Regester placed 1st in Parliamentary Law at state in March. The Creative Marketing Project headed by Dave Dalton got 2nd in the state. Bob Merritt and Lynn Wilkins made the top 10 in advertising and current marketing topics in state competition. Lynn Wilkins was also runner-up for state treasurer. Guest speakers in class, field trips, and an employer-employee banquet were some club events.

Equestriennes

Girls Enjoy More Riding

Riding at Douglas Meadows twice a month was the main activity of the club. They used to ride at Howard Stables but decided to change. They had informal and formal inductions in November and February for new members. They made spirit signs for different sports events and gave the teachers favors for several halidays. Several meetings and slumber parties were enjoyed throughout the year. In the spring they could do more riding and had some carwashes for expenses.

Students Excel in Weekend Journaments

In the beginning of the year NFL had a "Kiddy Movie" on a Saturday morning in the auditorium for children to come see. For fund raising projects they had bakesales at Krogers and sold pocket calendars. In tournament competition Dale Radunz and Jeff King excelled in Humorous Interpretation, Barb Bellg and Ray Byers—Oratorical Interpretation, Sue Hinkle—Original Oratory, Rick Michael—Dramatics, Mark Walden, David Squire, Melanie Pertcheck, and Eileen Bradner—Boys and Girls Extemporaneous Speaking. Everyone did well but these students were exceptionally apad.

New Organizer Revives Spirit

A late start prevented Debutantes from participating in many activities. Sue Krieg, arganizer, obtained a club charter for the second semester. The girls had formal inductions February 24. A collection of canned goods for the Red Cross helped hungry families. Members who didn't have to work had lunch at Farrell's one day after school.

Conveniently.

Have we got a future for you!

You've graduated ... but now what? A job? Or more education — and then a job?

Think about this . . . Fiberglas is the new basic material, used in over 30,000 products from sports equipment to tires to draperies. And Owens-Corning is the world's leading maker of Fiberglas materials. There could be a great future for you — growing with us. Think Fiberglas, think Owens-Corning.

Owens-Corning is Fiberglas who needs more power plants anyhow!

You do.

If you want to use the products you own today and will own tomorrow. Most are powered by electric energy.

If you want to work. Every job requires the use of electricity in some form.

If you want to live in a quality environment. Most pollution control equipment runs on electric power.

You need power plants . . . for all your wants.

So live a little.

A Toledo based, multinational, billion-dollar manufacturer of packaging materials in glass, plastic and paper as well as a dynamic variety of non-packaging items for diversified markets, takes this opportunity to express support for education and for the young men and women who will make tomorrow just a little bit better than today.

Classes changed in length from 60 minutes to 50 minutes. School began at 8:15 a.m. and ended at 3:15 p.m. Although most students had finished by 2:20, some study halls were necessary. Seniors found it difficult to come 15 minutes earlier and sad to leave 20 minutes later. The change over to activity schedule, which did not take all of the time from the 2nd hour class, was an improvement. However, students with jobs ran into a time problem on days we had activities, since they did not get out of school until 12:55.

As the energy crisis brought Daylight Savings time, students found themselves coming to school in the dark. National events such as: the paper shortage, gas shortage, Watergate, and college streaking affected DHS students.

Coaches, athletes, and the student body worked together to produce #1 teams. Academic efforts also received emphasis and recognition.

Negotiations played a prominent role in many situations. Administrators, faculty, and students sat down together as a family and talked over solutions to problems, and together worked them out. After the death of the Assistant Principal-Instructor, other administrators took on added duties.
